

“The Most Excellent Way” INTERNATIONAL

NEPAL

Provided by Pastor John Pendleton
Director, “Reaching the Unreached Ministries”

Asia Evangelical College KATHMANDU, NEPAL

A pastor holding “The Most Excellent Way” Ministry Manual during small group training with Pastor John Pendleton (lower left).

Pastor John with translator and Pastor Mitra (seated).
Pastor Mitra is coordinating all
“The Most Excellent Way” activities in Nepal.

The Most Excellent Way International — NEPAL

KATHMANDU, NEPAL —

MEW training; half-day classroom and half-day practicing leading a support meeting.

Mealtime for the students.
We provide a meal as part of the training.

Pastor John with Anita, who is very active conducting MEW meetings.

KATHMANDU Street Scenes

The Most Excellent Way International — NEPAL

Town of MANIPURI, NEPAL

Pastor John working with village pastors as they conduct practice
The Most Excellent Way meetings.
Most of these men walked many miles
to attend training sessions.

Liquor for sale outside TMEW meeting.
Note: All names are knock-offs of well-known brand names. This is all black-market alcohol — very dangerous to drink.

MANIHARI, NEPAL — Street scene
below Pastor John's hotel room.

The Most Excellent Way International – NEPAL

COW is the National Animal of Nepal

- Cow is a sacred animal; cows are worshiped especially during festivals
- Cow's dung and urine are used during Puja (Act of honoring, respecting or worshiping Gods)
- Killing or eating cow meat is a felony in Nepal

Daphne (Lophophorus) is the Bird of Nepal
These exotic of all pheasants are the inhabitants of high elevation of the Himalayans.

Rhododendron is the National Flower of Nepal (Nepali name: Lali Guranse)

